We seek outstanding individuals to join our dedicated support staff team. Become a part of our diverse College, creating brighter futures, greater prospects and endless possibilities!

TITLE:	Learning Strategist	PAYBAND:	J
LOCATION:	Main Campus, Belleville, ON	HOURS:	35/week
DEPARTMENT:	Student Success	SALARY:	$35.70
POSTING DATE:	August 17, 2017	START DATE:	ASAP
CLOSING DATE:	August 31, 2017	COMPETITION #:	SUP17-17N

LEARNING STRATEGIST:

Reporting to the Director, Student Success, the Learning Strategist is a key member of the AccessAbility Services team, assisting students with various learning disabilities understand how they learn, integrate technology to support their individual learning, and apply learning strategies and appropriate accommodations to help them reach their academic goals.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Interpret psycho-educational assessments with students to enhance their understanding of learning styles and compensatory strategies
- Use psychoeducational assessments and interviews with students to develop appropriate academic accommodations that assist students to be successful while respecting the key learning outcomes of the course/program.
- Conduct needs assessment and develop/implement compensatory learning strategies programs for students with disabilities that enhance academic performance
- Initiate and lead small group sessions and one-on-one sessions with students
- Support faculty professional development opportunities to integrate learning strategies into the curriculum
- Maintain confidential case records, relevant statistical data and required tracking/reporting
- Analyze current practices, research new valid methods and strategies to assist students in their education and self-monitoring
- Build partnerships and positive relationships with internal departments and the external community

(. . . Continued on next page)

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Completion of a four (4) year degree in Educational Psychology or equivalent degree (e.g., Special Education). A Master's degree in a related field considered an asset
- Professional registration/certification, knowledge of adaptive technology, instructional experience/presentations, study strategy courses are considered assets
- Experience in the administration and interpretation of individually-administered assessments
- Clinical and post-secondary teaching experience working with adults with disabilities considered an asset
- Demonstrated knowledge of psychosocial and academic aspects of disability
- Personal attributes and interpersonal skills that facilitate teamwork and effective working relationships with a wide range of students, faculty, staff, and community members
- The ability to communicate effectively and empathetically, both verbally and in writing, including excellent group presentation skills
- The ability to function independently and as a member of a multi-disciplinary team

TO APPLY: Applications must be submitted quoting the competition # SUP17-17N in the email subject line. Please send a covering letter and a resume in MS Word or PDF format to:

Human Resources Services
E-mail: humanr@loyalistc.on.ca

Posted in accordance with Article 17.1 of the Support Staff Collective Agreement.
In support of a diverse and inclusive college community, Loyalist College encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, racial/visible minorities, and aboriginal peoples. In accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), Loyalist College is committed to accommodating applicants with disabilities throughout the hiring process. At any stage of the hiring process, Human Resources Services will work with applicants requesting accommodation.

Please note: Following an offer of employment, candidates with Canadian credentials will be required to provide official transcripts from the granting educational institution(s). Those candidates with international credentials must provide World Education Services (WES) www.wes.org/ca evaluation (at their own cost) confirming Canadian equivalency of their credentials.

We thank all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted