- “person employed in a managerial or confidential capacity” means a person who,
- (a) is involved in the formulation of organization objectives and policy in relation to the development and administration of programs of the employer or in the formulation of budgets of the employer,

- (f) is not otherwise described in clauses (a) to (e) but who, in the opinion of the Ontario Labour Relations Board, should not be included in a bargaining unit by reason of his or her duties and responsibilities to the employer

A vote will likely be held to determine whether employees wish to be represented by the union in their employment relations with the employer.

VOTE ARRANGEMENTS

The Board will determine the voting constituency, which is the group of employees who will vote.

The Board will also consider the requests of the union and the employer as to where and when the vote should be held.

IN THE NORMAL COURSE THE BOARD WILL DIRECT YOUR EMPLOYER TO POST A "NOTICE OF VOTE AND OF HEARING" BESIDE THIS NOTICE. THAT NOTICE WILL SET OUT THE DATE AND TIME OF THE VOTE, THE LOCATION(S) OF THE POLLING PLACE(S), AND THE VOTING CONSTITUENCY.

To ensure that you are informed of the vote arrangements, you should regularly check this space for the "Notice of Vote and of Hearing".

CONDUCT OF THE VOTE

An official of the Ontario Labour Relations Board will conduct the vote, which will be by secret ballot. If you believe that you may be eligible to vote, or have any question as to whether you are eligible to vote, you should attend at a polling place and identify yourself to the Board Officer conducting the vote.

AFTER THE VOTE IS HELD

If the union and the employer agree to count the ballots, or if the Board so orders, a report that sets out the results of the vote will be posted next to this Notice.

If any issues are not resolved, the results of the vote may not be announced, and a meeting with one of the Board's Labour Relations Officers and/or a Hearing may be held by the Ontario Labour Relations Board. The date, time, and location of meetings and hearings will be set out in the Notice of Vote and of Hearing.

MAKING A STATEMENT TO THE BOARD

If you want to say something to the Board about this application, you must send a written statement to the Board setting out your name(s), address and phone number, the file number that appears at the top of this Notice, the names of the union and your employer, and a detailed statement of what you want the Board to consider.

Form C-2
CCBA, 2008

YOU SHOULD NOT WRITE TO THE BOARD IF THE ONLY THING YOU WANT TO SAY IS THAT YOU SUPPORT OR DO NOT SUPPORT THE UNION. YOU WILL HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO EXPRESS YOUR WISHES BY VOTING.

If you decide to send a statement to the Board, you should do so as soon as you become aware of the information you wish to give to the Board. You may send your statement by mail, courier, fax or personal delivery, but it must be actually received in the Board's offices not later than five (5) days (not counting weekends or holidays on which the Board is closed) after the date of the vote.

AT THE SAME TIME THAT YOU SEND YOUR STATEMENT TO THE BOARD, YOU MUST SEND A COPY OF YOUR STATEMENT TO BOTH THE UNION AND THE EMPLOYER. THE CORRECT NAMES AND ADDRESSES OF BOTH APPEAR ON THE APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATION POSTED BESIDE THIS NOTICE, IN PARAGRAPHS 1(A) AND 1(C). YOU SHOULD TELL US IN YOUR STATEMENT HOW YOU DELIVERED THESE COPIES.

You should read and follow the Board's Rules of Procedure if you intend to make a statement to the Board. Copies of the Board's Rules may be obtained from the Board's offices located on the 2nd floor at 505 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario (Tel. (416) 326-7500) or downloaded from the Board's website at www.olrb.gov.on.ca.

If the Board decides prior to a hearing that your statement will not change the result of the application, the Board may decide the application without any more notice to you. If this occurs, a copy of the Board decision will be sent to you.

If you send a statement to the Board, you must come to any meetings and hearings that are held or send someone to speak for you, or the Board may decide the application without any more notice to you and without considering your written statement.

Most applications are settled by discussions with a Labour Relations Officer without the need for a meeting or hearing. A Labour Relations Officer may call you to discuss the application.

RIGHTS OF EMPLOYEES

Employees in Ontario have the right to bargain collectively with their employers. This right is guaranteed by the Colleges Collective Bargaining Act, 2008, which establishes methods for employees to choose trade union representation, and describes how a trade union bargains with an employer in order to reach a collective agreement that sets out the terms and conditions of employment.

The Act also sets out rules of fair play that govern trade unions, employers, and employees in their labour relations activities.

YOU SHOULD BE AWARE THAT EMPLOYEES IN ONTARIO HAVE THESE RIGHTS:

- To organize themselves and form a trade union.

Form C-2
CCBA, 2008

- To join a trade union and participate in its lawful activities.
- To act together for collective bargaining.
- To refuse to do any or all of these things, or to remain neutral.
- To cast a secret ballot in favour of, or in opposition to, representation by a trade union.
- Not to be discriminated against or penalized by an employer or a trade union for supporting or opposing a trade union, or participating in its lawful activities.
- Not to be penalized for exercising rights or participating in a proceeding under the Colleges Collective Bargaining Act, 2008.

If you believe your rights have been violated, you have the right to file a complaint with the Board.
