

Chris Ley

71 King Street, Bowmanville, ON J7H 3G0
416-888-8888

Summary of Qualifications

- ❖ Ability to comprehend electrical blueprints, and schematics/ladder diagrams
- ❖ Understanding of the Canadian Electrical Code
- ❖ Excellent communication skills both written and oral
- ❖ Dual capabilities of working well independently and as a team member
- ❖ Safety oriented, follows safety policies and procedures of workplace
- ❖ Capable of using power tools, soldering and troubleshooting equipment(ex. Ohmmeter)
- ❖ Standard First Aid and CPR Certified
- ❖ Physically capable of engaging in repetitive heavy lifting

Education

Electrical Engineering Technician – Industrial Diploma Program (2015)

Loyalist College Belleville, Ontario

- ❖ Courses associated: Control Systems and Interfacing, Industrial Communication Networks, Motion Control, CADD Electrical and Advanced PLC's

Electrical Techniques Certificate Program (2014)

Loyalist College Belleville, Ontario

- ❖ Courses associated: industrial Distribution Systems, Occupational Health and Safety, Safety and Electrical Code, Fluid Power and Control

Employment History

Machine Shop Laborer – Dieroll Tool, Mississauga, ON (2014)

- ❖ Assisted Electrician by performing duties such as panel wiring, wire labeling, installation of panel fan, perform knockout hole procedures
- ❖ Remained conscious of safety at all times
- ❖ Completed miscellaneous general labour duties around the shop

Labourer – C & F Manufacturing, Bowmanville, ON (2012 & 2013)

- ❖ Maintained cleanliness and safety of the workplace environment
- ❖ Worked with an assembly team to produce, package and ship products
- ❖ Reported any equipment malfunctions to team leader
- ❖ Worked a variety of shifts

Stock Clerk – Food Basics, Bowmanville, ON (2009-2011)

- ❖ Assisted customers with general questions, needs or concerns
- ❖ Unloaded products and made sure store was ready for business
- ❖ Maintained overstock, overheads and product codes