Inspire and Lead in a Strong Vibrant Community

Loyalist College is a vibrant college of 2800 full-time students in more than 50 certificate and diploma programs. More than 17,000 part-time registrations each year place the college among the highest levels of lifelong learning activity in Ontario. The College also provides a number of highly successful entrepreneurial activities locally and throughout the region, serving communities throughout Eastern Ontario and beyond. Loyalist is very involved with business, economic development, and social development partners throughout our region.

Loyalist College is perfectly situated in Belleville and Bancroft Ontario with short distances to Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal. The College has programs in Engineering and Applied Science, Business and Hospitality, Health, Human and Justice Studies and Media Arts. Affordable living coupled with beautiful surroundings and numerous lifestyle amenities makes the Quinte Region one of the best places to live in the Province.

As Loyalist celebrates its 50th anniversary the College is seeking a bold and visionary academic leader who can contribute to the College's future direction and help shape a new strategic plan and vision. Such an academic leader would work with the academic team, the Student Success team, the President and the senior management team to ensure a bold and exciting academic vision focused on an exceptional student experience and, supported by the strategies and tactics required to achieve the identified outcomes.

The College is seeking candidates with: a minimum of a Master's degree in educational administration, adult education or business administration; a strong understanding of the process of adult learning; related leadership experience in increasingly senior roles; experience in a post-secondary academic environment; successful budget management experience; success in developing and implementing new and innovative partnerships/alliances; and demonstrated strengths in leading change and implementing strategy. Experience in a unionized environment is preferred. A passion for student success and an enthusiastic belief in the value and importance of the College sector are essential to be successful and become a valued member of Loyalist's committed collegial team.

All inquiries regarding this position will be treated in strict confidence and should be directed to Karen Cullen, Human Resources by email: kcullen@loyalisc.on.ca.
