

27th Annual PLAR Conference

PLAR – Unleash the Potential!

Introduction to PLAR and Portfolio Development

Presenters: Sandy Novroski, Loyalist College and Elizabeth Nicholas, CHRP, Trenton MFRC

Unleash Potential through Portfolio!

Potential is showing the capacity to become or develop into something in the future¹. PLAR and Portfolio truly are catalysts for unleashing potential.

This workshop will focus on the structure and importance of Portfolio Development as a method of PLAR.

Join us to learn what PLAR is and how Portfolio as a form of PLAR can enhance personal growth and the development of self-confidence through the validation of all learning. In a world that rarely stops to recognize, document and acknowledge learning, it is important to learn how to take credit for all that one has done and can do!

Creating a professionally developed portfolio can assist with education, career planning, employability and more through having relevant Prior Learning from all elements of one's life Assessed and Recognized = PLAR!

This interactive workshop will provide participants with the fundamental elements of Portfolio Development.

Each participant will begin to develop their own structured and versatile portfolio. Through self-evaluation, group activities, brainstorming and general discussion, we will learn how to unleash potential from our past and present learning.

Portfolio development principles and practices provide a solid foundation to build on. If you or someone you are working with is seeking to move forward in career, education or life, this is a "must-have" first step.
