

Nanette Marinus

1 Main Street, New Cityland, ON K0K 6H0
Home: (555) 322-7337 | Cell: (555) 322-7337
example-email@example.com

Summary

Accomplished Horticulturist and advocate of sustainable agriculture offering over 2 years of experience. Specialist in native plants with a passion for the outdoors.

Highlights

- Invasive species knowledge
- Specialist in Japanese gardens
- Experience using drought-resistant plants
- Familiar with sustainable forestry techniques
- Excellent public speaker
- Skilled grant writer
- Honest
- Hard-working

Experience

Horticulturist - 11/1/2010 – Current

Howland Botanic Garden - Howland, ON

- Responsible for the entirety of the garden ensuring grounds are beautiful, well-maintained and safe for all visitors.
- Direct tour guides on what to showcase and when different plants will be in full bloom.
- Create programming for child gardeners and campers.
- Ensure all staff adheres to sustainable gardening and eco-friendly pest management strategies.
- Help with fund-raising and sponsorship presentations and Q&A sessions.

Horticulturist - 2/1/2005 – 9/1/2010

Tillman Forestry and Field - Moss Hill, ON

- Scheduled harvests based on weather conditions and market demands.
- Stabilized flooding problems with French drains and other water removing strategies.
- Managed 17 farmers in completing large projects.
- Delineated wetland and stream management zones.
- Planted seeds, bulbs, trees and ground cover.

Education

Master of Science – Horticulture 2004

Berdoin University. Grand Central, ON

- Emphasis in Organics and Sustainability

Degree – Horticulture 2001

Sacred Oak College, Oak Grove, ON