

- Engages in ongoing faculty development opportunities and effectively liaises with colleagues and other College and community partners to maintain a collaborative and relevant learning environment
- Contributes to program development by participating in the Provincial Program Review processes
- Assists in program awareness and program recruitment activities
- Assists with the creation and supervision of student field placements as assigned
- Incorporates appropriate technological tools that support the learning environment

Qualifications:

- Completion or candidacy of a doctoral degree in Business or Education; if Education, must be supported by a graduate degree in the Business field
- Minimum of five (5) years of recent and relevant experience in a breadth of business-related environments
- A commitment to excellence in educational delivery demonstrated through experience in a variety of teaching and learning environments would be preferred
- Knowledge of emerging trends as well as potential programs based on industry demand, community engagement, and global market forecasts
- Demonstrated ability to cross-collaborate across various program disciplines
- An ability to apply an understanding of diversity and inclusiveness to meet the needs of a diverse student population
- A demonstrated understanding of the principles of adult learning along with experience teaching adult learners and developing curriculum; previous teaching experience particularly in the college environment is an asset
- An ability to work within a collaborative environment demonstrated through a strong network of contacts with other professionals, agencies and employers
- Computer literacy and a willingness to learn and utilize learning tools (such as Blackboard) employed at the college to enhance student success

TO APPLY: Applications must be submitted quoting the competition # ACA20-02N in the email subject line. Please send a covering letter and a resume in MS Word or PDF format to:

Human Resources
E-mail: humanr@loyalistcollege.com

In accordance with the Collective Agreement for Academic Employees, first consideration will be given to applicants as defined in Article 27.11B.

In support of a diverse and inclusive college community, Loyalist College encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, racial/visible minorities, and Indigenous peoples. In accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), Loyalist College is committed to accommodating applicants with disabilities throughout the hiring process. At any stage of the hiring process, Human Resources Services will work with applicants requesting accommodation.

Please note: Following an offer of employment, candidates with Canadian credentials will be required to provide official transcripts from the granting educational institution(s). Those candidates with international credentials must provide World Education Services (WES) www.wes.org/ca evaluation (at their own cost) confirming Canadian equivalency of their credentials.

We thank all applicants, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.